Public attention for Covid-19 antibody kit developed by SD BIOSENSOR is increasing rapidly. Under this circumstances, the U.K government Cheif Scientific Advisor, Patrick Vallance, has described COVID-19 antibody test as a potential "game changer", and it would be "transformational" said Chris Whitty, the Chief Medical Advisor.

The following articles will help you understand why the British government is so serious about using COVID-19 antibody tests to control this pandemic disaster.
